

PREVENT

REMOVE

COOL

COVER

SEEK

BURN AWARENESS WEEK

The Burn Intensive Care Unit is pleased to announce the hosting of the 7th Multidisciplinary Burn Awareness Day on 13 February 2025.

- Exhibition: Surgical Tower, Ground Floor / 9:00 AM – 11:30 AM
- Presentation: “The Role of Multidisciplinary Teams in Burn Injury Patients” / 13:00 PM / KASCH Large Auditorium.

This event aims to raise awareness among the public and healthcare professionals about burn prevention, management, nutrition, rehabilitation and psychological support for burn victims.

OBJECTIVES:

- How prevent Burns at home.
- Early Management of Burns.
- Able to identify types of Burns.
- Able to identify mechanism of Burns.
- Discuss the wound care in Burns.
- The role of Occupational and Physiotherapist in rehabilitation of the Burn victim.
- The importance of psychological support for the Burn victim.
- The role of Clinical Nutrition in introducing early, optimal feeding in the Burn injury patient.
- The importance of Acute Pain Service Department in Burn injury patient
- The role of Infection Control Department in importance of Infection control precautions of a Burn injury patient.
- The role Pharmaceutical holistic approach in ensuring proper use of medication to prevent overdosing or antimicrobial resistance

TARGET AUDIENCE:

- Burn Intensive Multidisciplinary team, all health care workers, Burn survivors, public. (No CME hours)

Contact Person:

Ms. Barbara Yeni, pager 4022

Ms. Johanna Rice, pager 6924

