

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia
Ministry of National Guard Health Affairs
King Abdulaziz Medical City – Riyadh
Department of Medicine, Division of Pulmonology

1st Diffuse Parenchymal Lung Diseases Course دورة أمراض التليف الرئوي

Dr. Sameer Bin Huraib Large Auditorium
25 September 2019

Registration: Free

3 CME Hours

Target Audience: Physicians, Nurses, Educator & Other healthcare providers

On-site registration will start at 8:00 am. First 100 attendees will be given CME hours. Attendance will be checked during the event.

OBJECTIVES

- Understand the definition and epidemiology of diffuse parenchymal lung disease including IPF
- Describe the clinical presentations of diffuse parenchymal lung disease
- To improve the awareness and understanding of the disease given that the society should be informed of the benefits of timely diagnosis, care, and promote prevention
- To give update information about community screening campaign and to improve understanding of the disease and therapy for a better prevention, diagnosis and treatment
- New treatments update, pathways and team working in order to provide high quality care in patients with diffuse parenchymal lung diseases

For further inquiries, kindly e-mail Ms. Marla Perez medpulmo@ngha.med.sa